FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT.

Thrilling Scenes After Adjournment of Court.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 16.—The government rested in the case yesterday of Maurey I. Diggs, charged with F. Drew Caminetti with violation of the Mann act, and the defense began its efforts to prove that Diggs and Caminetti did not transport Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris from Sacramento to Reno for immoral purposes unlawfully.

After court adjourned Diggs got into fresh trouble. Leaving the Federal building by a side entrance to shield his wife, his mother, his father and three aunts from public curiosity, he was ambushed by a squad of newspaper photographers. The women tried to run but the photographers kept pace with them, snapping their cameras as they gave chase.

Somebody snatched at a camera, somebody punched a photographer in the face, bystanders joined in, and in an instant there was a free-for-all fight at the center of a swirling crowd. Drew Caminetti was swept in to the vortex and began to struggle with the rest. It became so complicated that the squad of police who came running to the spot bundled the whole party of principals into a patrol wagon and took them to the nearest station.

There it developed that one photographer had been hammered on the head with something hard—what or by whom he could not be sure. A reporter said that the photographer had been smashed in the face with his own camera. As the unshot of the whole affair Diggs was released, and a friend of his, a law clerk, was charged with arrest and battery.

CHURCH AND SUFFRAGE.

Archbishop Says No Definite Stand Has Been Taken.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 16.—"I do not believe that the Creator intended the position of woman in the world should be the same as that of man," said Archbishop Sebastian G. Messmer, of Milwaukee, in an address before the members of the Catholic Press Association a day or two ago in which he spoke against woman suffrage.

"However," he added, "I would not dare to come out with a positive statement that agitation for woman suffrage is against the rules of the church. The church has not taken any definite stand and until it does each individual has a right to think, talk and act as he sees fit. There has never been a clear expression of what the traditions of the church would be."

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.
